

LDNS Deceit & NETHERING SCHEMES #9

I didn't think that we would ever get started and I am beginning to still have my doubts. So without further ado LDNS is on the air bringing you the best in Diplomacy* entertainment. If it isn't the best, don't tell me, just let me live in my own dream world. This issue is dedicated to Jim Bumpas who has given me some super ideas on printing techniques. (This being the first page I don't know how well they will work but Thanx to Jim for spending the time.)

LDNS is published, edited, printed and possibly declaring bankruptcy by Jerry H. Jones 1854 Wagner St. Pasadena, CA 91107 (213) 449-0982 for the p ltry sum of $3.50 for 10 issues with a Dippy game fee of $2 with a $2 refundable NMR deposit for each game. There are currently two spaces available in the next regular Dippy game. Those already signed up are L. Harmon, D. Hard, D. Hansen, B. Gallagher, and A. Tomcufcik. I am planning on having those of you interested play test a variant that I designed. To those of you who have made requests for the rules and map you should, hopefully, be getting them soon.

I wish now to take the opportunity to welcome some new subscribers to LDNS. Since last issue we have added David Hansen, Cliff Hardisty, Robert Lipton, John Michalski and Ron Kelly. (Guess we're moving up to the big time now.) LDNS has had only one NMR in its entire history, at least only one where the moves never came in, and since Ron joined we have had two in this issue alone. As far as I know Ron is only taking over standby positions and when he signed up I assumed it would be quite a while before he was able to get an opening but if this is any sign of things to come maybe not as long as I thought.

On a serious side for a moment. It has been brought to my attention that Gary Kilbride is ailing. I know not of what is wrong but I wish to send out hopes for a speedy recovery to Gary on behalf of the subscribers of LDNS. Get well soon, Gary.

All The News That's Fit to Print (or All That I Know About)

IDA-NA: Diplomacy Review was sent out the first part of January and in it was the ballots for the Offices for 1978. There was a mix up on getting this issue out to the newer members. It is understood by me that these issues should be out now and that the date for casting the ballots will be delayed. So the opportunity to help the organization be what it should be is there so vote because if you don't and the organization doesn't change you have no one to blame but yourself.

Variant Awards: Robert Sacks (4861 Broadway 5-V, NY, NY 10034) has asked me to publish the Nomination Ballot for Variant Awards. Due to space limitations I sincerely hope that this will suffice. You should list one or two nominees for each of these categories: 1) OUTSTANDING PUBLICATION (exclusively or in major part) FOR VARIANTS. 2) OUTSTANDING VARIANT GAMEMASTER. 3) OUTSTANDING VARIANT DESIGN. 4) OUTSTANDING ARTICLE ON VARIANTS. 5) GENERAL CONTRIBUTION TO VARIANTS (may be for events prior to 1977). 6) SPECIAL AWARD (may also be for events prior to 1977) (For this special award there should be only one nominee.) It is extremely nice to be recognized by one's peers so if you are interested in variants take the time to send this off to Robert.

More on Variants: Robert Sacks (address above) is looking for people to work on recategorization and playtesting variants. Also if anyone would be interested in a variant organization, Robert would like to know.

1978 Census: Andy Cook has completed 1/3 of the census and with any luck should be completed sometime in April or May. Prices are tentatively set at one or two dollars. Make no requests now please, but rather wait for the official announcement.

That's all I have for right now but I am happy to see that some are beginning to take advantage of this space. If you know of any news that is pertinent to Dippy drop me a line on it so we can pass the word on to all.

Say Jim, that's not too shabby! A little bleed through but nothing I can't live with. I can't believe that I can actually us Sub 20 now. I can already feel less money coming out of my wallet.

PERSONALITY OF THE MONTH

Robert Gallagher

I am a 40 year old Dentist. Attended the Univ. of Pittsburgh for both pre-dent and Dental school. I spent two years in the Navy guarding the Mississippi River at Memphis from tooth decay. My lovely wife of 10 years, Karen, hates games and so I've been forced to go the PBM route. The rest of the family includes Jill 9, Brian 7, and two cats. Brian will be my game player as he is already learning to play chess. For hobbies I collect chess sets, playing cards, stamps and stampless covers. I've also been working on my family tree since 1972. I paint (waterless mostly) when I get the urge, play golf (16 handicap) in summer and bowl in winter. My long range project is a '52 MGTD which is lying in hundreds of little pieces all over my garage. I like all sports, pizza, the Dallas Cowboy Cheerleaders, Diplomacy and autumn in Pennsylvania (not necessarily in that order!) I hate rain, people or things which are late (Dip zines), cold weather, 3 handicap golfers and bills. I've NEVER seen the Rose Parade or Rose Bowl in Person nor do I expect to.

((Thanx Bob, I can see that we have alot in common and something that you will hate me for. First off I have re-built a 1953 MGTD from the bare frame on up completely re-doing everything. Fun but costly. Dan Brownell (1977-HW) is also a TD fanatic. He has five, I think, in various stages of disarray. But unfortunately I carry a three handicap (ner hole.) My wife was a dental ass't for three years and I won't tell you what she has to say about Dentists. But she does want me to tell you what Ambrose Bierce says about Dentists: Dentist, n. A prestidigitator who, putting metal into your mouth, pulls coins out of your pocket.))

Diplomacy or Just Fancy B.S.
by Anonymous

How many times have we heard "the ones that win Diplomacy games are the ones that write the most." (or some such nonsense.) That statement is misleading and sometimes down right fallacious. What else can a person tell a novice in one sentence? This, Play position, agree with any and everyone and lend a little mystery to your self. There are five positions that can play this way very easily, France, England Italy, Russia & Turkey. The other two Germany and Austria can be touch and go. I'm not saying all games can be played like this, but you'd be surprised at the number that could; at least if the players involved played heads up Diplomacy. Of course there are always those people that either don't know the games concepts or just plain can't play. Often times They don't last long anyway. (Besides I don't want to get off on this). There have been a large number of games I've witnessed or played in where a person writes two or three times between moves and when in doubt makes phone calls. (a whole nother subject) When this starts to happen a bell should ring, because this guys up to something. If a person simply looks at everything from a tactical position he'd be surprised sometimes at what's there or what he could create. Often this type of player is susceptible to a stab or easy manipulation. Don't be snowed by phone calls or eloquent letter writing. Play your position and try a little B.S. yourself. This is a good time for some mystery (if you've created any) to be used. If you've agreed with what every one has said then you should have three or four friendly nations. Now all you do is pick your target. Remember playing the middle against the ends is a difficult task.

Often, if the other players sense this your position can be short lived. Some players even gain reputations for this style.

Two don'ts in correspondence, don't get belligerant or greedy and don't pretend to be the actual, political head of any country. In press it's fine, but writing letters as the King of England or Czar of Russia does more harm than good.

Special game opening: This game is primarily for those players who are not members of the IDA-NA. Upon request LNDS-7 will be a game where your game fee of two dollars will be sent to the Treasurer of the IDA-NA for your first year dues. What have you got to lose?

Here is a letter from Bob Beardsley, publisher of Brouhaha (which came today and I must say Bob, INTERESTING!!!) In case you haven't seen it it is printed on one sheet of paper measuring 14" X 18" and as I sit here covered from head to toe with black ink (and I'm not even half through) he makes me sick knowing he only had to do two pages. Bob is most definately a pioneer.

Jerry:

I read your article on rating game zines with great interest. I would like to add my own viewpoints to what you said.

First, I would say a publisher does owe something to his subbers. No "yesses or noes" about it. If an offer is made (to run games) and money is accepted (when you sub and pay game fees), then you deserve the service promised. The amount of money rendered or the pubber's losses or profits has nothing to do with responsibility, and that's the issue. The pubber has a responsibility to his subbers because he promised a service (symbolized by his acceptance of money in return for his promise).

My stance on pubber responsibility may seem harsh but I feel there are many publishers who openly or secretly feel the same way. Infact, the good publishers are the responsible one, right? Jerry Jones is one of these.

Bob Beardsley
Publisher of Brouhaha

((Like I said earlier in the zine, it is always a good feeling to be complimented by ones peers. Thanx, Bob.--JHJ))

HOW TO PLAY
by John Caruso

This is a general discription in how to play Diplomacy. Or should I say, my idea of how it should be played. First and most important, find out what country you are and whom your opponents are. When you write, write to all of your neighboring countries. Also write to anyone else you think may be of great assistance to you. Feel as many players out as possible. Of course, everyone will probably lie between their teeth in 1901, but by 1902 you will know where you stand. When this is established, create your game plan and play it out to the end. Most players play a conservative game. No one likes to make enemies or take unnecessary chances. But if you're in trouble, taking a chance may help your position, or even gain you an ally or friend. At least it will gain you respect from your opponents. But don't take a foolish chance. Only a reasonable one. High risk moves are also a good idea if you have a strong alliance and want to eliminate an opponent more quickly. But don't forget to always keep your mind and eyes open to all ideas and theaters on the board.

I have found most players in general are methodical. What I mean by this is that they will move A-B, then B-C, then C-D etc., with X,Y, & Z supporting it. This is what I consider conservative. It's not a bad way to play, but if intending to accomplish something, speed is usually of importance. A gambling move would be viewed as A-D with X,Y, & Z going elsewhere.

There are other items which are good to follow when performing diplomatic functions. Unless you intend to commit Hari-Kari, answer all letters. Try to be approxamately truthful. This way, if you're in need of that player later you can go back and say "See, I've never lied to you yet!" If you've lied to him you will not be able to sway him, unless he's stupid or simple.

Also, don't pass on too much information. You may even be able to bargain for a SC or a cease fire for some vital information, though I've never seen it come true in a game yet. Usually, if you keep feeding true information, you make friends. If you're allied strongly, anything goes. Letter exchanges, phone calls, and common support and intermingled units.

Well that's how I wiew "How To Play Diplomacy." You can take it or leave it for what its worth.

ALL PLAYERS READ AND HEED--

In the future all press will be handled thusly:

a.) All press with a dateline will fall into two classed. One from the player owned countries and ones from neutrals. Both will be printed (possibly shortened) and obscene material removed. The ones with Neutral datelines will indicate origin. (i.e. Gibraltar-via Russia)

b.) Switzerland may be used without source of origin being indicated but press may be omitted at my disrection if it may prove, in my opinion misleading. (i.e.--Switzerland: Informed sources have indicated that the English fleet are going to stab the French in the back.)

c.) No dateline will be treated the same.

Play it safe if press is important and use a home (or any owned) country or city.

Golly, Buffalo Bob, what time is it? I'm not sure Howdy, let's ask the kids in the peanut gallery...

"SAY KIDS, WHAT TIME IS IT?"

"ITS GAME TIME!!!"

1977-HW "The West Coast Game"
Fall 1903

Autumn retreat: Ger A War-Mos

AUSTRIA (SHERWOOD) 6 A Ukr-Sev; A Ser-Bul; A Rum & F Gre S A Ser-Bul; A Tri-Ser; A Gal S GER A Sil-War
ENGLAND (FUGIHARA) 4 F Gas-Bre(annih); A Pic S F Gas-Bre; F Nth-Eng; F Lon S F Nth-Eng.
FRANCE (BROWNELL) 5 A Spa-Gas; A Mar S A Spa-Gas; A Bre-Par; F Eng-Bre /d/ ret Irs, Wal or OTB; F MAO S F Eng-Bre.
GERMANY (SPIEKERMAN) 3 A Bur-Gas; A Bel-Bur; A Ruh S A Bel-Bur; A Kie-Hol F Both-StP(sc); A Sil-War; A Mos S A Sil-War; F Bal-Lvn.
ITALY (DAVE DITTER) 4 F EMed-Smy; A Syr S F EMed-Smy; F Ion-Aeg; A Ven S AUS A Tri-Tyr(nso).
RUSSIA (HOYLMAN) 2 NMR Units hold A Lvn A War
TURKEY (HARD) 5 A Sev-Arm; F Aeg-EMed; F Smy S F Asg-EMed (annih); F Con-Aeg; A Bul H (annih).

Now that was a heavy-duty season!!!

SUPPLY CENTER CHART

	Has	Adjustment
AUS Home, Ser, Gre, Rum, SEV,BUL	3	+2
ENG Home, Nwy	4	+1
FRA Home, Por, Spa	5	0
GER Home, Hol, Dem, Bel, Swe, War, MOS, STP	10	+2
ITA Home, Tun, SMY	5	+1
RUS SMY, MOS	0	Out
TUR Con, Ank, SMY, SMY, BUL	2	-1

If requested a separation of season will be granted upon request, otherwise Winter/Spr '04 is due Noon Saturday Feb 18.

1977-IS "The Publishers Game"
Winter '02

SEPARATION OF SEASONS

AUS (J. BUMPAS--LIBERTERREAN) 6 Builds A Vie; A Bud has A Tyr,Ser,Rum F Bul(sc)
ENG (D. BUNKE--THE NINTH CIRCLE) 5 No change has A Nwy F Nwy, Nth,StP,Ska
FRA (D. AGOSTA--COMMAND) 5 No change A Par,Gas F WMed. NAf, Tyrr
GER (B. HARTWIG--THE PODUNK NEWS) 6 Builds A Ber has A Bel,Ruh,Sil F Bal,Den
ITA (A. COOK--SUICIDE) 5 Builds F Rom, F Nap has A Pied, F Gre,Tun
RUS (DAVE DITTER) 4 Removes A Swe has A Fin,Mos F Both,Sev
TUR (B. BEARDSLEY--BROUHAHA) 3 No change A Smy F Con,Ank

Orders on file for A, E, F, R, T.

Press:

Korbach--No press allowed: Lady Joan's Shields Lord Hartwig from saying anything.

ANKARA: Will someone please inform the Sultan of the whereabouts of the book entitled "Italian War Tacted Made Simple" is? It was stolen from the Sultans personal library of books of Tragic Comedy. Also missing is "1,001 Ways To Cook Your Goose." There was a great opportunity, Andy, why did you play it the way you did?

PASADENA--Don't worry Bob, I doubt if they are stolen. I am pretty sure that all of the pages were colored in anyway.

ROME--No Comment.

SWITZERLAND--Burgandy is beautiful this time of year, right Fritz?

All new orders or changes in orders are due to me noon Saturday, Feb 18

1977-IA
Spr '03

THIS IS JOHN CAMERON SWAYZEE FOR ITALY. WE HAVE STRAPPED THE ITALIAN TO THE BOTTOM OF AN AUSTRIAN MOUNTAIN CLIMBER AND AFTER A GRULLING SEASON WE SEE HE'S STILL AROUND WHICH JUST PROVES ITALY CAN TAKE A LICKING AND KEEP ON TICKING.

AUS (TOMCUFCIK)	5	A Tyr-Ven; F Tri S A Tyr-Ven; A Gal H; A Ser S TUR A Rum; F Gre-Ion.
ENG (BERMINGHAM)	4	F Nwg-Nwy; F Nth S F Nwg-Nwy; A Swe H; F Ska S A Swe
FRA (MORRIS)	6	A Bel-Ruh; A Bur-Mun; A Mar-Bur; A Pic-Bel; F Bre-MAO F Eng S ENG F Nth.
GER (DIEHL)	5	F Den-Nth; F Hel S F Den-Nth; F Bal-Den; A Kiel S F Bal-Den; A Hol-Ruhr.
ITA (ROGOWSKI)	4	A Ven-Tyr; F Tyrr S F EMed-Ion; F EMed-Ion; A Tun H
RUS (POORE)	5	A Sil-War; A Ukr-Rum; F Sev-Blk; F Both-Fin; A Nwy S F Rot-Fin.
TUR (REGES)	5	F Blk C A Bul-Arm; A Bul-Arm; A Rum S AUS A Gal; F Aeg-EMed; F Smy S F Aeg-EMed.

I failed to show that the ITALIAN A Ven must retreat to Apu, Tus, Pied or OTB.

Press:

GALICIA--Thousands of grateful Galicians filled the streets today to thank Emporer Tomcufcik and his "Agressive Austrian Army" for liberating their territory, thus ending a bitter two year struggle for the province. "It is about time," the Emporer said, "That all nations of Europe unite to rid the continent of the 'Rotten Russians' and their Ridiculous Ruler."

VENICE--After spending six rugged winter months in the Austrian Alps, the Austrian 1st Army stormed into the city today for a brief vacation. "We had heard Venice was beautiful in the Spring" General Nemchek said, "But after seeing this lovely town, I don't think we'll ever leave."

ROMA BARRETTA REPORTING--What well known Potentate of a polyglot empire has just cut his own throat?

Fall '03 is due noon Saturday, Feb 18

1977-KC
Fall '02

Autumn TUR F Blk ret Ank

AUS (SHIELDS)	5	A Tri-Tyr; A Vie S A Tri-Tyr; F Gre-Aeg; A Ser S A Bul; A Bul S RUSS F Blk-Con
ENG (DIEHL)	4	F Nth-Eng; A Wal-Lvp; F Lon S F Nth-Eng; F Eng-Wal
FRA (CARUSO)	4	F Bre-Eng; F MAO S F Bre-Eng; A Spa H; A Mar-Pied.
GER (REGES)	6	A Sil-War; A Pru S A Sil-War; A Ruh-Mun; A Bel H; F Bal-Both; F Den-Swe.
ITA (MUETH)	4	A Tyr-Ven; A Pied-Mar; F Tyrr-Lyon; F WMed-MAO.
RUS (EICHELBERGER)	5	A Mos-Was; F StP(sc)-Lvn; A Sev-Ukr; F Blk-Con; F Rum-Sov
TUR (MACHIR)	3	A Con H; F Ank S A Con; A Arm-Smy

SUPPLY CENTER CHART		Has	Adjustments
AUS	Home, Ser, Gre, BUL	6	+1
ENG	Home, Nwy	.4	0
FRA	Home, Por, SPA	5	+1
GER	Home, Den, Hol, Bel, WAR, SWE	8	+2
ITA	Home, Tun	4	0
RUS	StP, Mos, Sev, W As , Rum	4	-1
TUR	Home, MAX	3	0

Last issue Turkish A Con H was omitted.

Press:

Berlin to Moscow: This is only the beginning. Idiot Austrians had better not aid the Russian scum or they too will feel my wrath!

Roses are red
Violets are blue
Czar, you should know
That the Reich will cream you.

Winter '03/Spring '03 are due noon Saturday February 18

Well I think that that I'll take a break now and see what's on TV. Before I do here are some highlights of this week's TV viewing that I'm sure you won't want to miss.

SUNDAY: 60 MINUTES---Dan Rather takes you on a behind the scenes interview with some of Diplomacy's better known publisher's. See your favorites at work and at play. Some very interesting footage of them at home. Shot on location at Camarillo and Bellevue State Hospitals.

MONDAY: MONDAY NIGHT DIPLOMACY--Howard Cosell GM's this week's game. This will prove to be an exciting game for the winner will be entitled to go to the Dippy Superbowl. Don't miss all the attention and excitement especially when Mean Joe Green tears off Howard's nose for not moving his fleet because he failed to list which coast.

TUESDAY: HAPPY DAYS--Richie and Potsie ally together and get The Fonz out of the game by 1902. After the game Fonzie shows Richie a new place to keep his armies between games.

LAVERNE & SHIRLEY--The girls invite the boys over for a friend game but the game is shortened when Squiggy eats Germany and Austria thinking they were licorice.

WEDNESDAY: EIGHT IS ENOUGH--This is the continuation of a last week's episode. The Bradfords spend another hour arguing over who will GM.

CHARLIES ANGELS--Farrah Fawcett NMR's out and a new comer, Cheryl Ladd is asked to assume her position.

BARETTA--This is the last episode...The Bird wins the game.

THURSDAY: POLICE WOMAN--Sgt. Pepper is hot on the trail of a mass murderer. Six people are found dead with knives in their backs. The only clue is each holds a black wooden block.

FRIDAY: CHICO AND THE MAN--The alliance of Ed and Chico don't prove to be enough against Sandford and Son but neither seem to be powerful enough to stop the "Three's Company" team.

SATURDAY: LOVE BOAT--The crew and passengers show a new way of making alliances. (There will be a programming announcement that this may not be suitable for younger viewer's.)

Well, that's the highlights for this week. Consult your local guide for times and channels.

DON'T WASTE THAT MOVE!

Seeing as many games that I do I am amazed at the many moves that fail and all the while there is another unit that could have made the move go through but it was ordered to hold.

One of the first things I was told when I started playing was to never have a unit hold. Of course I do on occasion but very rarely. Seldom are you so spread out that a unit holding can't do something.

One of the obvious things it can do is support a unit into another space. Even if that unit is getting support elsewhere one more unit helping couldn't hurt. It can support another unit supporting another unit.

But something else it can do is create dissension without making a move. Suppose you are Austria and you wish to create some dissension between Russia and Turkey. You plan to have A Ser H. Why not have A Ser S Rus A Rum-Bul? Even though it will be an NSO you have created a mistrust between the two countries and you still have for all intents and purposes held. Who knows maybe the next turn the Russian will ask for that support again and you have made an ally without lifting a pen. It wouldn't happen every time but no harm in trying.

So remember when you start to write your orders and you begin to print the "Big H", look around and be sure that there is nothing else that he can do.

THE RULE THAT I HATE!!!

X. CUTTING SUPPORT If a unit ordered to support in a given space is attacked from a space different from the one into which it is giving support,... then its support is cut.

That says nothing about a supported unit giving support. I have always felt that a unit which is support better than by what he is being attacked by would be able to not have his support cut. Using the assumption that a strong unit even though it was attacked by a weaker force would be able to complete its mission. For example if F Nth S A Swe-Nwy and F Eng, F Nwg, F Edi S F Nth all it takes is a F Den-Nth to cut the support.

My complaining won't change anything. I could always make it a variant but I thought I'd bring it up and give you something to tell me I'm wrong about.

1977-KX
Fall '01

AUS (HARD) 3 A Bud-Tri; A Ser-Tri; F Alb-Gre.
ENG (HARMON) 3 F Nth-Nwy; F Edi-Nth; A Lvp-Yor
FRA (REGES) 3 F MAO-Por; A Dur-Mun; A Mar-Spa
GER (PETERSON) 3 A Mun-Dur; F Hol-Bel; A Kiel-Den.
ITA (DIEHL) 3 F Ion-Tun; A Pied-Tyr; A Ven S A Pied-Tyr
RUS (KILBRIDE) 4 NMR Phantom moves: F Both-Swe*; A Gal, A Ukr, F Sev H.
TUR (LONG) 3 A Bul-Rum; A Con-Bul; F Ank-Elk

*Russian move to Swe is allow since there could be no contest over the control of Sweden with any other major power. If Swe were owned by a major power or could have been taken by a major power I would have not allow that move by the Phantom. I hope that is clear to everyone.

FRENCH F Bre-MAO was not in all of the issues, last time and the involved parties were notified.

SUPPLY CHART		Has	Adjustments
AUS	Home, SER, GRE	5	+2
ENG	Home, NWY	4	+1
FRA	Home, POR, SPA	5	+2
GER	Home, BEL, DEN	5	+2
ITA	Home, TUN	4	+1
RUS	Home, SWE	5	+1
TUR	Home, BUL, RUM	5	+2

Neutral: Holland

STANDBY FOR RUSSIA; Will Gary Stratton 135 Elmira Loop 15E; Brooklyn, NY 11239 please submit moves for Russia? I have read that Gary Kilbridge is sick and giving up some or all of his games so this may be perminate.

Press:

LONDON: The King truly is a very odd fellow. He can't abbreviate Norwegian! Also, our now humble King would like to know if you-all out there are ready for lesson No. two about the ~~Royal~~ Rotten Navy.

Cognac: German Spikeheads that do not answer diplomatic mail are not fit for this game.

Players please note Ken Petersons zip code should be 22186.

Winter 1901 is due Saturday Feb 18

Up-To-Date-As-I-Know-Of-It-Know-Standby-List
David Hard, Ron Kelly, John Morris, David Mueth, Steve Shields, Gary Stratton, Andy Tomcufcik, and Tony Watson.

AND MORE NEWS:

1977 Diplomacy Handbook: Available from Greg Costikyan, Box 865, Brown Univ. Providence, RI 02912, for $2.00, $1.50 for IDN-NA members.

Personal Notes From Your Beloved Editor to YOU!

Good luck

I thought that I would take advantage of this final page to show who are running for what in the IDA-NA upcoming (or past) elections.

For President: Bob Hartwig

Roger Oliver

Greg Costikyan

For Periodicals Editor: Alan Moon

Jerry Jones

For Treasurer: Bill Young

Doug Beyerlein

US Rep: Andy Cook

For Ombudsman: Craig Reges

David Dunke

Can Rep: Cal White

Don Wileman

For Special Projects: Konrad Baumeister

These are in no order and I'm not going to indicate my preference for it is too late to sway anyone and no reason to upset anyone who I might be working with. For you see I am one of those who joined the IDA-NA last year and never got this issue of Diplomacy Review which means that I can't even vote for myself and avoid a possible shutout.

When I signed up for PE my biggest fear would be that I would be running against someone of a defeatist attitude or someone who was more interested in full-filling some deep desire to be important and then not do the job. I was afraid that should I lose to someone like that I would feel that I had really let the hobby down. I am happy to say that that has not happened. Alan is as good as you'll find and I will be confident that the job will get done with either selection. In fact there is but one of all the candidates that I don't think will do the job to the best of their ability so all in all this looks like an outstanding start.

All I ask is that you don't condemn the IDA-NA too harshly until we see what they do this year. With the caliber of people involved if this group doesn't make it work it probably never will. Give it a chance, you have nothing to lose.

As some of you may know it is cold back East and mail delivery is terrible due to weather conditions, not that its that good normally, but there were a lot of moves that weren't received here and I had call quite a few for move. Should the weather not clear up and this gets to you slowly and there are a lot of delayed moves the zine may be a week late next issue. But DON'T COUNT on it. Get your moves in on time and you'll have nothing to worry about but if more than 30% of the moves aren't in I may grant a delay, but please, please don't expect it to happen.

Well I've done my part and now it's up to the Postal Service. Good Luck.

THANX,

Jerry H. Jones
1854 Warner St.
Pasadena, CA 91107

You have 6 more issues

Please see pg _____

You are asked to Standby _____

Doug Beyerlein
640 College Ave.
Menlo Park, CA

94025